Participants can still join The Don Scheer Memorial Packhorse Race, set for May 29 & 30 in Dubois, WY.

DUBOIS, WY - The Don Scheer Memorial Packhorse Race will be held on Saturday, May 29 & Sunday, May 30 at the Dubois Town Park. The open race (men and/or women) will start at 10 a.m. where the team will break down their camp, pack up one horse, saddle the other two horses and trot a 7-mile course. After they unpack the horse, have a 15-minute break, they will trot again the 7-mile course and set up camp at approximately 11 a.m.-Noon. The first team (2 people, 3 horses) to complete this wins!

The entry fee for Saturday's event is $100.

There will be a Calcutta on Friday evening where contestants meet the teams and hopefully bet on their projected winners. A first, second, and third place will be awarded for each race with 10% given to charity.

On Sunday the team combinations change. The 7-mile Old timer's race (with combined contestant ages of 100 years) will start at 10 a.m. The 7-mile Powder-Puff race will be for ladies only and starts at 11 a.m. The routine is similar but the camp will consist of a teepee instead of a larger tent. These entry fees are $65 per team (2 people, 3 horses).

Come with your horses and join the fun or watch and bet on your favorites. Either way, the Don Scheer Memorial Packhorse Race is sure to entertain you.
